In accordance with the Schedule, this tax strategy is available on AerCap's publicly accessible website (www.aercap.com).

Governance framework

In accordance with the AerCap Code of Conduct², we are committed to managing our tax policy with integrity and in an honest and responsible manner. All employees are required to comply with the AerCap code of conduct and certify annually that this is the case.

In line with the above, AerCap's tax governance structure is as follows:

- The Board of Directors of AerCap has overall responsibility for global tax affairs;
- The CFO is accountable to the Board;
- The AerCap Tax Department is led by the AerCap Head of Tax who reports to the CFO who is responsible for oversight of the management of tax risk; and
- The Board of each company adopts the tax strategy and owns and oversees its application.

¹ This tax strategy applies to all UK entities controlled directly or indirectly by AerCap Holdings NV. Each company regards this document as complying with the duty under either Paragraph 19(2) in relation to AeroTurbine Europe Limited or Paragraph 22(2) in relation to all other entities listed in Appendix I Schedule 19, UK Finance Act 2016

Approach to risk management

Effective risk management is paramount for and underpins the AerCap business strategy. AerCap's appetite for risk is a carefully calibrated part of the business model aligned to the strategic and corporate objectives. Our ongoing tax risk approach is based on principles of reasonable care and materiality. Part of our tax risk management process is to have effective controls across the business.

The AerCap Tax Department consists of tax professionals who collectively have the appropriate level of knowledge and skills to manage AerCap's tax affairs and monitor tax risks across the business. Professional advice is obtained from suitably qualified external advisors where the tax treatment of specific items is uncertain or complex. This policy prescribes compliance with all relevant laws, rules, regulations, reporting and disclosure requirements in a manner that achieves the tax risk approach.

Attitude of the UK companies towards tax planning:

AerCap strives to provide a long-term return to our shareholders and therefore we seek to structure our business in an efficient manner. We do not interpret tax laws in a manner that we believe is contrary to their intention and we do not undertake tax planning unrelated to commercial transactions.

Level of risk in relation to UK tax that the companies are prepared to accept AerCap is not prescriptive in terms of levels of acceptable risk. However, in accordance with our Governance framework and approach to risk management, AerCap's level of acceptable risk is assessed based on the specific facts and circumstances.

Due to the cross border nature of our business we are cognisant of potential risks which could arise. Therefore the AerCap Tax Department assists each Company to actively identify, monitor and manage tax risks on an ongoing basis.

Approach of the companies in dealings with HMRC

AerCap understands the importance of communication with HMRC. We maintain an open and honest relationship with HMRC and seek to work in partnership with HMRC in relation to our tax affairs. In addition we place a strong emphasis on:

- Transparency in all interactions with HMRC.
- Responding promptly and with full disclosure to HMRC enquiries.
- Full disclosure of inadvertent errors that are discovered subsequent to submitting our tax returns where required by law.
- Working with integrity and maintaining a collaborative and professional relationship with HMRC.
